MICROFILMED
INTRODUCTION

This finding aid focuses on the papers of Charles Thomas Leonard, genealogist, White County Historian, and businessman of Sparta, Tennessee. Spanning the years 1858-1992, the papers largely consist of genealogical data on various early families in White County, Tennessee. Other items within the collection include clippings, programs, and slides relating to Sparta and White County, Tennessee.

The materials were donated by Robert E. Leonard of Manchester, Tennessee, brother of Charles T. Leonard. Robert E. Leonard earlier donated a collection (see accession number 93-099) of his brother’s papers to the Tennessee State Library and Archives.

There are no restrictions on the material. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Charles Thomas Leonard Papers-Addition may be made for individual or scholarly research.
SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Charles Thomas Leonard Papers—Addition consisting of approximately two and one-half cubic feet/630 items, span the period 1858-1992, although the bulk of the materials is largely concentrated in the years 1972-1980. The collection is composed of associations, institutions, etc., clippings, genealogical data, slides, Sparta and White County, Tennessee items, writings, and several miscellaneous items.

Genealogical data on various early White County families make up the main body of the collection. Among the families that Leonard compiled research on are the Cope, Leonard, Little, McClean, Mitchell, Officer, Parker, Sims, Townsand, Twitty, Whiteman, and related families. The Container List has a complete listing of families. Within the Cope-Hudson file (Box 1, Folder 14), aside from family history information, will be found bills and receipts, correspondence, school records, teacher contracts, and other original documents related to Sallie A. Cope (1817-1902), Rachel Cope (1840-1901), and Frank S. Hudson (1875-1903). Please note that the contents of folders 19-24 of Box 5, have been returned to White county since they are technically county records.

There are over 160 photographic slides in the collection featuring photos of old houses and business establishments in Sparta and White County. Also included are several slides of the city cemetery in Sparta as well as the old Nashville City Cemetery. This portion of the collection is housed in the vault.

The Charles Thomas Leonard Papers-Addition combined with the earlier Leonard Collection provide valuable and useful tools for the prospective researcher in White County, Tennessee.
