

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, Tennessee is home to a growing number of vineyards, and the wine and grape industry is one of the fastest growing segments of Tennessee agriculture and experiencing unprecedented growth; and

WHEREAS, the wine community is an important sector of agribusiness in Tennessee and wineries are flourishing across the Volunteer State; and

WHEREAS, the number of wineries in Tennessee has grown from a base of 21 bonded wineries in 1999 to more than 72 bonded wineries and 343 vineyards; and

WHEREAS, the 2007 and 2012 Censuses of Agriculture show that Tennessee has seen a 56% increase in grape acreage, going from 580 to 905 acres; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee grape and wine industry directly provides employment for more than 400 people, including self-employed owner-operators, with recent analysis showing 20% year-over-year job growth; and

WHEREAS, the annual economic impact of Tennessee-produced wine is estimated at between $40 million and $60 million; and

WHEREAS, vineyards and wineries play an important role in Tennessee's tourism industry, with wineries and vineyards significantly enhancing tourism in the State by providing unique travel destinations, green space, and aesthetic appeal; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee Grape and Wine Month is an opportunity to celebrate Tennessee's rich wine heritage with citizens and business and community leaders working in the wine industry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 2017 as

Tennessee Wine and Grape Appreciation Month

and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this eleventh day of May, 2017.

Governor
