

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, an ethical, well-trained and dedicated direct support professional workforce is often the bridge to inclusion for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities; and

WHEREAS, empathy and genuine understanding of persons with disabilities are fostered in communities through the work of direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, communities are strengthened and enriched by the inclusion of all members of society, including people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, people with disabilities may be better able to secure and maintain gainful employment with the support of direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, many families of people with disabilities are supported through the efforts and assistance of direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, the lives of children and adults with disabilities are enriched through the work of direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, people without families often find friendship and love from direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee citizens with disabilities are more able to live self-directed lives, because of the support of direct support professionals; and

WHEREAS, thousands of Direct Support Professionals live and work in Tennessee and deserve recognition as valued members of our society for the essential supports they provide to people with disabilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim September 9-15, 2018, as

Direct Support Professionals Recognition Week

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this fourteenth day of August, 2018.

A blue ink signature of Bill Haslam, Governor of Tennessee.

Governor

A blue ink signature of Jeannette W. Hargett, Secretary of State of Tennessee.

Secretary of State

