

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB) was founded in Nashville, Tennessee, on May 2, 1919, to facilitate licensure and safeguard the public; and

WHEREAS, NCARB has been the bedrock of support for architectural licensure for the past 100 years; and

WHEREAS, in collaboration with its state licensing board members, the organization has upheld its mission to protect the health, safety, and welfare of individuals in and around the built environment throughout its rich history; and

WHEREAS, the programs and services developed by NCARB and adopted by its members have set national standards for the regulation of architects, including those practicing in the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, NCARB has created a community of service and collaboration within the field of architecture and its related professions to the benefit of the public;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim May 2, 2019 as a day to honor the

100th Anniversary of the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB)

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-ninth day of January, 2019.

Bill Lee

Governor

LeVergé

Secretary of State