

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, providing a sufficient supply of diapers can reduce economic pressure on needy families and

WHEREAS, a supply of diapers is generally an eligibility requirement for infants and toddlers to participate in childcare programs and quality early educations programs; and

WHEREAS, when infants and toddlers cannot participate in childcare programs, it makes it difficult for their parents and guardians to participate in the workforce, thereby causing economic harm to many families; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee is proud to be served by agencies and organizations that recognize the importance of diapers in helping to provide economic stability for families; and

WHEREAS, Tennesseans are encouraged to donate generously to diaper banks, diaper drives, and to those organizations that distribute diapers to families in need;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim the week of September 21 through September 27, 2020 as

Infant's and Children's Diaper Need Awareness Week

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-second day of July, 2020.

Bill Lee
