

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, interior designers affect the health, safety and welfare of the people of Tennessee in public and private spaces; and

WHEREAS, the public depends upon the skills and knowledge of qualified interior designers to create environmentally sound living and working spaces; and

WHEREAS, employers are increasingly aware that good design means good business through increased productivity and public recognition; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Interior Design Coalition, composed of the American Society of Interior Designers and the International Interior Design Association, is dedicated to creating accessible environments for all populations; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Interior Design Coalition encourages the continuous growth of the professional interior designer through its support of secondary education and continuing education programs;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim October 2012 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this 25th day of September, 2012.
