

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, at its most basic level, Architecture satisfies society's need of shelter, providing a sense of safety and security; and

WHEREAS, at its best, architecture does so much more -- it gives shape to our stories, our lives, and our communities; and

WHEREAS, architecture connects us through place, and it embodies our shared values and beliefs; and

WHEREAS, architecture is a reflection of a states history, of its changing culture, economy, and ecology; and

WHEREAS, architecture shapes the future, as it solves problems, with a goal to make the world better; and

WHEREAS, architects play a significant role in creating the buildings and spaces where we live and work;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim October 2021 as

Architecture Month

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twentieth day of July, 2021.

Governor
