

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, behavioral health is an essential part of health and one's overall wellness; and

WHEREAS, prevention of mental and substance use disorders works, treatment is effective, and people recover in Tennessee and around the nation; and

WHEREAS, we must encourage relatives and friends of people with mental and substance use disorders to implement preventive measures, recognize the signs of a problem, and guide those in need to appropriate treatment and recovery support services; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's own Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services recognizes that more than 300,000 Tennesseans need substance abuse treatment; and

WHEREAS, to help more people achieve and sustain long-term recovery, the Tennessee Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (TDMHSAS) and the Tennessee Association of Alcohol Drug and other Addiction Services (TAADAS) invite all residents of Tennessee to participate in Recovery Month in this its 32nd year of national recognition; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim September 2021 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

Recovery Month

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this thirty-first day of August, 2021.

Bill Lee

Governor
