

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, National Domestic Violence Awareness Month is recognized each October through educational events, community gatherings, and support groups as stated by National Today; and

WHEREAS, 1 in 4 women and 1 in 7 men have experienced some form of physical violence by an intimate partner in the United States; and

WHEREAS, 1 in 15 children are exposed to intimate partner violence each year in the U.S., and 90% of these children are eyewitnesses to this violence; and

WHEREAS, 72% of all murder-suicides involve an intimate partner in the U.S.; 94% of the victims of these murder suicides are female; and

WHEREAS, there were 69,385 domestic violence incidents reported in 2020 in Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, on a typical day, there are more than 20,000 phone calls placed to domestic violence hotlines nationwide; and

WHEREAS, 90 people were murdered in Tennessee in 2020 in a domestic violence incident; and

WHEREAS, victims of violence should have access to medical and legal services, counseling, transitional housing, and other supportive services so that they can escape the cycle of abuse; and

WHEREAS, it is important to recognize the compassion and dedication of the individuals who provide services to victims of domestic violence and work to increase public understanding of this significant problem; and

WHEREAS, local programs, state coalitions, national organizations, and other agencies nationwide are committed to increasing public awareness of domestic violence and its prevalence, and to eliminating it through prevention and education; and

WHEREAS, our State has a moral obligation to work to prevent domestic violence and to address its brutal and destructive effects; and

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim October 2021 as

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twentieth day of September, 2021.
