

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, International Project Management Day will be celebrated throughout the State of Tennessee, the United States, and countries worldwide on November 1, 2012; and

WHEREAS, the rapid growth and recognition of the project management profession will be celebrated by the Chapters of the Project Management Institute (PMI) throughout our state; and

WHEREAS, project managers worldwide and within the State of Tennessee provide critical expertise in the building of our communities; improving the quality of life, providing leadership with such projects as the exciting Pellissippi Research Centre and completion of projects that strengthen our economy such as Nashville's new Music City Center or the completion of TDOT SmartWay in Williamson County, one of the largest intelligent transportation projects in the nation; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Tennessee commend the members of the PMI chapters and their initiatives to promote project management, and recognize the contributions project managers have made in the worlds of business, government, non-profit organizations, and community service, and

WHEREAS, these dedicated professionals and their teams exemplify the importance of perpetually enhancing the value of leadership, cooperation, creativity, innovation and perseverance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim, November 1, 2012 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this 1st day of November, 2012.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Bill Haslam", written over a horizontal line.

Governor

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Julie Bergett", written over a horizontal line.

Secretary of State

