

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the good health and general well-being of the people of Tennessee is strengthened by our awareness and understanding of a genetic disorder known as 4p- syndrome, or Wolf-Hirschhorn Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, children with 4p- syndrome are usually born with low birth weight and develop slowly, both cognitively and physically, compared to their same-age peers, and experience medical complications while still developing pleasant and lovable personalities; and

WHEREAS, dedicated professionals are presently involved in valuable research to explore new therapies and diagnostic tools, and to offer hope to persons with 4p- syndrome; and

WHEREAS, the 4p- Support Group estimates that approximately 1,000 individuals in the United States have 4p- syndrome, though it is thought many remain undiagnosed; and

WHEREAS, now is the time for all Tennesseans to educate themselves on 4p- syndrome and to work together as a people and as a state to increase research into understanding the syndrome, to advocate for effective diagnostic screenings, to support the development of improved therapies for early intervention and other necessary and critical treatments, as well as join in recognizing and applauding the valuable role which families and advocates of those who have 4p- syndrome play in helping our medical community to advance the knowledge and awareness of this syndrome; and

WHEREAS, the state of Tennessee is pleased to join people throughout our nation in promoting a special celebration which seeks to raise awareness of 4p- syndrome, designed to have a positive and productive impact on the lives of all people with 4p- syndrome and their caregivers;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim the 16th day of April 2022 as

*4p- / Wolf Hirschhorn Syndrome
Awareness Day*

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this fourteenth day of April, 2022.

Governor
