

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, building safety and fire prevention officials, architects, engineers, builders, and others in the construction industry work year-round to ensure the safe construction of buildings; and

WHEREAS, countless lives have been saved due to the implementation of safety codes by local and state agencies; and

WHEREAS, these modern building safety codes also include safeguards to protect the public from natural disasters such as hurricanes, snowstorms, tornadoes, wild land fires, and earthquakes; and

WHEREAS, Building Safety Month reminds the public about the critical role of our local code officials who help prevent deaths and injuries from fires and accidents; and

WHEREAS, as we observe Building Safety Month, we ask Tennesseans to consider projects to improve building safety at home and in the community, and to acknowledge the essential service provided to all of us by local and state building departments and federal agencies in protecting lives and property; and

WHEREAS, "Prevent, Prepare, Protect. Building Codes Save" is the theme for Building Safety Month 2022 and encourages all Americans to raise awareness about the importance of safe and resilient construction, fire prevention, disaster mitigation, energy conservation, water safety, training the next generation, and new technologies in the construction industry; and

WHEREAS, Building Safety Month encourages appropriate steps everyone can take to ensure that the places where we live, learn, work, worship, and play are safe and sustainable, and recognizes that countless lives have been saved due to the implementation of safety codes by local and state agencies; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Building Officials, Fire Safety Inspectors, Plumbing and Mechanical Inspectors, the State Fire Marshal's Office, architects, engineers, and the building industry in Tennessee as a whole, continue efforts to address the critical issues of safety, energy efficiency, and resilience in the built environment that affect our citizens, both in everyday life and in times of natural disaster, give us confidence that our structures are safe and sound;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim May 2022

Building Safety Month

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-second day of April, 2022.

Bill Lee
