

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, every day in Tennessee, 17 people are diagnosed with lung cancer and 14 are diagnosed with breast cancer; and

WHEREAS, lung cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer and the most common cause of cancer death among Tennesseans; and

WHEREAS, breast cancer is the second most commonly diagnosed cancer (first among women) and the third most common cause of cancer deaths (second among women) among Tennesseans; and

WHEREAS, one out of every eight women in Tennessee will develop breast cancer in her lifetime; and

WHEREAS, rates of newly diagnosed breast cancers are similar among black and white women in Tennessee, and black women are more likely to die of the disease; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic has led to sharp declines in cancer screenings; and

WHEREAS, early detection of both lung and breast cancer can make it easier to treat; and

WHEREAS, dedicating a day to promote breast and lung cancer screening will encourage Tennessee women to schedule a breast and/or lung cancer screening;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim Friday, November 4, 2022 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-second day of September 2022.

Bill Lee

Governor
