

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, since 1972, the National Senior Nutrition Program has funded local agencies and organizations to serve home-delivered and congregate meals that help to ensure older adults have opportunities to stay healthy, independent, and connected; and

WHEREAS, local senior nutrition programs help older adults access healthy foods; nutrition screening, education, and counseling; social opportunities; and other supports that encourage well-being; and

WHEREAS, services are provided in over 200 congregate settings (such as senior centers or senior housing), as well as to homebound older adults in all 95 Tennessee counties; and

WHEREAS, with an increasing older adult population in need of assistance from services such as the senior nutrition program, awareness and support is more important than ever; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's Senior Nutrition Program is having a positive impact on our community and its older adult members by serving over 3.3 Million meals to 67,000 older Tennesseans in state fiscal year 2022; and

WHEREAS, offering a hot meal and a good friend, Tennesseans who graciously volunteer their time and resources to the Aging Nutrition Programs across our state are helping to ensure both the nutritional and socialization needs of older Tennesseans are being met;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim March 2023 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-eighth day of February 2023.
