

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Chapters of the National Association of Women in Construction remain steadfast in their mission to promote the employment, advancement, and empowerment of women in construction across our state and the nation; and

WHEREAS, women across the Volunteer State play a critical role in driving economic growth and innovation through their skills, expertise, and contributions to the construction industry as general contractors, subcontractors, executives, project managers, sales professionals, tradespeople, and more; and

WHEREAS, Women in Construction Week is an annual event dedicated to recognizing the valuable contributions of women in the construction industry, raising public awareness of their diverse and impactful roles, and fostering greater inclusivity and representation within the field; and

WHEREAS, the activities of Women in Construction Week—such as educational sessions, professional development, award ceremonies, networking opportunities, community service initiatives, and jobsite tours—aim to honor women in construction and inspire the next generation to pursue careers in this vital industry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim March 2-8, 2025 as

Women in Construction Week

in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this twenty-third day of January 2025.

Bill Lee

Governor

Lee P. Ragsdale

Secretary of State
