

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, thousands of brave Tennesseans have demonstrated their courage and commitment to freedom by serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, both on active duty and in the Tennessee National Guard and Reserves; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee is the 17th largest state demographically but the 6th largest National Guard state, and the 4th most deployed National Guard state in the last ten years; and

WHEREAS, there are over 40,000 children and youth with a parent on active duty, in the National Guard or Reserves stationed in Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee has committed to be an active participant in the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children, which is designed to support military children when they transition from school system to school system across state lines; and

WHEREAS, children and youth of our service members are major contributors to the fabric of strength for their parents serving in the armed forces; and

WHEREAS, children and youth of our service members continue to make significant contributions to family, schools, communities, our state, and the nation, despite prolonged and repeat absences of one or both parents; and

WHEREAS, these children are a source of pride and honor to us all, and it is only fitting that we take the time to recognize their contributions, celebrate their spirit, and let our men and women in uniform know that while they are taking care of us, we are taking care of their children;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do proclaim the month of April 2013 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this fourteenth day of March, 2013.

Bill Haslam

Governor
