

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the citizens of the State of Tennessee stand firmly committed to quality afterschool programs and opportunities because they:

- provide safe, challenging, and engaging learning experiences that help children develop social, emotional, physical and academic skills.
- support working families by ensuring their children are safe and productive after the regular school day ends.
- build stronger communities by involving students, parents, business leaders and adult volunteers in the lives of young people, thereby promoting positive relationships among youth, families and adults.
- engage families, schools and community partners in advancing the welfare of our children.

WHEREAS, the State of Tennessee has provided significant leadership in the area of community involvement in the education and well-being of our youth, grounded in the principle that quality afterschool programs are key to helping our children become successful adults; and

WHEREAS, Lights On Afterschool, the national celebration of afterschool programs held this year on October 17, 2013, promotes the importance of quality afterschool programs in the lives of children, families and communities; and

WHEREAS, more than 28 million children in the U.S. have parents who work outside the home, and 15.1 million children have no place to go after school; and

WHEREAS, these expanded learning opportunities help close the achievement gap and prepare young people to compete in the global economy;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim October 17, 2013, as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this fifteenth day of August, 2012.

Bill Haslam

Governor
