

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the strength of economic growth throughout the history of our nation is tied directly to the success of entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, our nation, and society in general, have benefited greatly from everyday use of once radical, breakthrough innovations developed and brought to market by entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, entrepreneurial firms are a critical component to the spread of economic stability throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, two-thirds of students on American campuses today intend to start a venture at some point in their life; and

WHEREAS, now more than ever, finding the path to success is defined by an individual's ability to turn their ideas into reality; and

WHEREAS, in today's connected world, opportunities to make an impact are no longer constrained by outdated barriers of where one lives or how much experience one has; and

WHEREAS, thousands of organizations in the United States will join in the celebration by planning activities designed to inspire, connect, inform, mentor and engage the next generation of entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, scores of countries are joining together to carry the banner of "Global Entrepreneurship Week" and host activities to promote entrepreneurship in their own countries;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim November 18-24, 2013 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

Entrepreneurship Week

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this first day of November, 2013.

Bill Haslam

Governor

John Roper

Secretary of State