

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, mediation in Tennessee continues to grow and assist citizens and the courts in alternative dispute resolution; and

WHEREAS, Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 31 was enacted in January 1996 to establish court-based alternative dispute resolution on a statewide basis; and

WHEREAS, as a result of promulgation of Rule 31, there are more than 1,000 Rule 31 mediators in Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, the Tennessee General Assembly and the Administrative Office of the Courts support eleven state-funded Victim Offender Reconciliation Program (VORP) centers; and

WHEREAS, the State of Tennessee wishes to acknowledge the contribution of mediation and encourage its further growth; and

WHEREAS, mediators will be gathering for conflict resolution training at the annual meeting of the Tennessee Association of Professional Mediators and presentation of the Grayfred Gray Public Service in Mediation Award by the Coalition of Mediation Awareness in Tennessee to Anne Sides, Carol Berz, and Jean Munroe on February 14, 2014;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim February 14, 2014 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this thirteenth day of January, 2014.

Bill Haslam

Governor
