

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, International Project Management Day will be celebrated throughout the state of Tennessee, the United States, and countries worldwide on November 7, 2014; and

WHEREAS, the rapid growth and recognition of the project management profession will be celebrated by the Chapters of the Project Management Institute (PMI) throughout our state; and

WHEREAS, project managers worldwide and within the state of Tennessee provide critical expertise in the building of our communities, improving the quality of life, and providing leadership with exciting projects such as the $198 million Bledsoe County Correctional Complex or the $72 million T3 "Transforming Tennessee for Tomorrow" project which is intended to consolidate state facilities; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Tennessee commend the members of PMI Chapters in our state and their initiatives to promote project management and to recognize the contributions project managers have made in the worlds of business, government, non-profit organizations, and community service, and

WHEREAS, these dedicated professionals and their teams exemplify the importance of perpetually enhancing the value of leadership, cooperation, creativity, innovation and perseverance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim November 7, 2014 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this fifteenth day of October, 2014.
