

STATE OF TENNESSEE
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, an excellent public education system is vital to the quality of life of our communities and to the economic development of our State; and

WHEREAS, school board members represent a tremendous resource as local decision makers and diligently work to meet the challenges of a dynamic world while providing students with the services needed for a quality education; and

WHEREAS, school board members strive to ensure that every student graduates high school prepared for college and the workplace; and

WHEREAS, school board members support and appreciate the efforts of students, educators, and administrators which have led to Tennessee becoming the fastest improving state with academic performance as measured by the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP); and

WHEREAS, the men and women of our local school boards are elected by the people to make decisions most appropriate for their communities and deserve recognition and thanks for their countless hours of service to public education in Tennessee;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim the week of January 25-31, 2015, as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

School Board Appreciation Week

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this thirteenth day of November, 2014.

Bill Haslam

Governor
