

STATE OF TENNESSEE

PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, March 28, 2012 marks the 100th Anniversary of the Girl Scouts of America; and

WHEREAS, the Girl Scouts of America was founded in 1912 by Juliette Gordon Low in Savannah, Georgia; and

WHEREAS, throughout its long and distinguished history, girl scouting has inspired millions of girls and women to strive for the highest ideals of courage, confidence and character; and

WHEREAS, through Girl Scouts, young women grow strong, gain self-confidence, develop leadership skills and learn the lifelong lesson of contributing back to their communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Haslam, Governor of the State of Tennessee, do hereby proclaim March 28, 2012 as in Tennessee and encourage all citizens to join me in this worthy observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville on this 2nd day of December, 2011.
